Some testimonials

"It is possible to blend different disciplines of coaching models that support creativity, flexibility and authenticity as a coach. Designing your coaching model enables to take a photograph of your current state, to think about your future self and to design a road map to close the gap. Mentor coaching also enriches the programme." Zeynep Baler, Hewlett Packard

"Having a wide range of different coaching models in your pocket and to be free about creating your coaching style is just great! The AoEC Practitioner Diploma in Executive Coaching Programme gave me exactly what I have wanted. It has not only given me a helicopter view of theory, principles and values of various models but also helped me to identify my own coaching style. I had lots of opportunity to practice, to see what others doing and learn from them during the training. No matter where the new skills and techniques will be used, I believe that it is a very good opportunity for my own personal development, highly recommended!"
